

FEBRUARY 1, 2010

Student Council meeting is Wednesday at 7:20 a.m.

Work on your homeroom door decoration with a Valentine theme to win a prize. Judging will be February 10.

On Wednesday our student body will have an opportunity to help the Red Cross as they provide care and shelter to the people in Haiti. You may wear a hat in class if you pay $1.00 and it must be work the proper way. You may wear a hoodie instead and pay $1.00. Wear both and pay $2.00. All money collected will go to the Red Cross. This is a time to give and help your fellow man.

Chocolate roses will be on sale tomorrow and Thursday before school by the 5th and 6th grade hallway - .75 cents each – different colors.

Congratulations to the Students of the Month for February! They are: Cassady A., Jeremy P., Genia G., Chris R., and Sheldon B. A pizza party will be Thursday, February 4 at noon in the principal's office. Please come to the office after these announcements.

Belle Valley 7th and 8th grade girls' basketball practice will be tonight from 4:45-6:30.

The boys' volleyball team had a good match on Wednesday. We beat Pontiac the first game, and were ahead in the second game, but let the match slip away for a loss. Dylan R. led in serving with 8 aces, and was our best passer. Dylan, Khalil F., Chris W., and Alex S. each had 3 good spikes. Garland E. added 3 service aces. Practice today after school in the gym.

Our 7th grade girls' basketball team defeated Pontiac last Wednesday night 37-4. Chasity R. had 7 rebounds and 11 points. Jayda F. had 8 points. Alexis S. had 3 rebounds. Brittney B. had 6 points. Teronika C. scored 4 points. It was a good team effort.

The chess team will play their first game of the season tonight at Belleville West High School. Chess players are to meet in Mr. Schueler's classroom today after school. Good Luck!

Attention all students who are interested in going out for the track team – if you did not sign up at the January 27 meeting, you must do so by this Friday, February 5th. The sign-up sheets are in the following locations.

6th grade – Mr. Volkmar's room

7th grade – Mrs. Yarber's room

8th grade – Mrs. Kowalski's room

A few reminders to students: Students who bring cell phones to school must turn them off and keep them locked in their locker. Students who had their cell phones out during the day or have them ringing in their locker will get them confiscated and turned into the office. Students in activities after school are not to use their cell phones until after their practice is over. If students are seen with phones during their activity, it will be confiscated. Any time a phone is confiscated, the parent will be responsible to pick it up from school.

Reminder about dress codes: Students are not to wear coats, jackets, or hoodies worn as jackets in the classroom or around the building.

No sagging – students sent to the office for sagging will receive an after school detention.

Our 8th grade girls' basketball team lost to Pontiac last Wednesday 27-13. Denisechione H. had 5 points. Tommie C. had 6 rebounds. Practice today from 4:45-6:30.

8th grade boys' basketball team will have a pizza party on Wednesday. We will meet in Mr. Brueggeman's room.

There will be NO morning chorus tomorrow.

Attention all Caudill readers: The deadline to turn in your completed reading logs to Mrs. Kelley is Tuesday, February 16th. That is the day I will be determining Battle of the Books teams and putting together the list of prizes! Don't stop reading yet! You've got a few more days to finish up what you started!

The boy's book club will meet THIS Thursday. Please stop by the library on Thursday morning to pick up your pass. If you haven't been to book club before, don't be shy! Anyone can come!

FEBRUARY 2, 2010

Our 7th and 8th grade girls' basketball teams will play at HOME tonight against West Jr. High. Game time is at 6:00.

Student Council meeting is tomorrow at 7:20 a.m.

Tomorrow morning the Student Council representatives will collect the money for the hats and hoodies for the Red Cross. Wear a hat and wear it correctly or wear a hoodie.

Good luck to the boys' volleyball team as they play tonight at HOME against West Jr. High. The match starts at 5:00. Team needs to be here by 4:30.

Attention all students who are interested in going out for the track team – if you did not sign up at the January 27 meeting, you must do so by this Friday, February 5th. The sign-up sheets are in the following locations.

6th grade – Mr. Volkmar's room

7th grade – Mrs. Yarber's room

8th grade – Mrs. Kowalski's room

Attention all Caudill readers: The deadline to turn in your completed reading logs to Mrs. Kelley is Tuesday, February 16th. That is the day I will be determining Battle of the Books teams and putting together the list of prizes! Don't stop reading yet! You've got a few more days to finish up what you started!

The boys' book club will meet THIS Thursday. Please stop by the library on Thursday morning to pick up your pass. If you haven't been to book club before, don't be shy! Anyone can come!

The Scholar Bowl team had their first match last week against Shiloh. They came away victorious with a final score of Belle Valley 155 and Shiloh 110. This great effort was led by Karl O., who buzzed in for 7 toss-up questions. All team members contributed to the victory. The next match will be this Wednesday at Belle Valley against Central Junior High.

Congratulations to Elizabeth R. – she is also one of our February Student of the Month winners.

The chess team lost last night against Whiteside. However, Justin S. managed to score 2 points against Whiteside's best player. Their next game will be Monday against West Jr. High.

5th and 6th grade girls play tonight at Wolf Branch. The 5th grade game is at 4:00 and the 6th grade game follows at 5:00.

The bowling team plays Ed Fulton Jr. High tonight at St. Clair Bowl. The match starts at 3:30. Come on out and support the Bombers to a victory.

FEBRUARY 3, 2010

Work on your homeroom door with a Valentine theme. They will be judged February 10. Prizes will be awarded.

Chocolate roses will be on sale tomorrow by the 5th and 6th grade hallway for .75 cents. There are different colors – it's a great valentine gift.

Reminder: Student of the Month pizza party is tomorrow. Come to the office at noon.

Attention all students who are interested in going out for the track team – if you did not sign up at the January 27 meeting, you must do so by this Friday, February 5th. The sign-up sheets are in the following locations.

6th grade – Mr. Volkmar's room

7th grade – Mrs. Yarber's room

8th grade – Mrs. Kowalski's room

The boys' book club will meet TOMORROW. Please stop by the library tomorrow morning to pick up your pass. If you haven't been to book club before, don't be shy! Anyone can come!

Attention all Caudill readers: The deadline to turn in your completed reading logs to Mrs. Kelley is Tuesday, February 16th. That is the day I will be determining Battle of the Books teams and putting together the list of prizes! Don't stop reading yet! You've got a few more days to finish up what you started!

Our 7th grade girls' basketball team defeated West Jr. High last night by the score of 21-17. Brittney B. had 3 steals and 11 points. Macee J. had 6 rebounds and 4 points. Chasity R. had 4 points and 3 rebounds. Stefani L. had a steal and 2 points. Practice tonight from 2:35-4:30.

The boys' volleyball team defeated West Jr. High last night in 3 sets. Dylan R. led in serving with 12 service aces. Alex S. was our best passer with 5 good passes; Chris W. and Dylan R. each added 4 good passes. Daniel B. and Khalil F. led in spiking with 7 good spikes each. Coty B. added 5 good spikes. Practice today 4:30-6:30 in the gym.

The bowling team played hard last night against O'Fallon Jr. High. Hannah S. bowled a high score for the girls with a 136. Matt M. bowled a high game of 144 for the boys. Their next game is on Monday against Pontiac.

The 6th grade girls' basketball team lost a tough game last night to Wolf Branch. The team played extremely well and fought until the last second. Scoring were Danielle H., Jasmine B., Cyanne L., Brianna N., and Rachel C. The girls' next game is at home on Tuesday, February 9th against Whiteside.

The 5th grade girls' basketball team lost to Wolf Branch last night. The girls continued to play hard despite the tough competition. Scoring were Rachel C., Brianna N., and Rachel C. We play again next Tuesday night against Whiteside here at Belle Valley.

Only rocket builders come for the Science Club meeting tomorrow.

Attention Student Ambassadors: There will be a meeting TOMORROW morning at 7:20 a.m. We will meet in Mrs. Jackson-Taylor's classroom.

Our 8th grade girls' basketball team lost to West Jr. High 31-37. Alexis A. had a team high 17 points and 7 rebounds. Tylisa G. had 3 points and 6 rebounds. Practice today until 4:30.

8th grade boys' basketball team pizza party will be today at lunch. Meet in Mr. Brueggeman's room.

FEBRUARY 4, 2010

Our 7th and 8th grade girls' basketball teams will play at home tonight against Central Jr. High. Game time is at 6:00.

Reminder: Student of the Month pizza party is today at noon in the principal's office.

American Red Cross fundraiser for Haiti amounted to $151.91 – the check is in the mail.

Attention all students who are interested in going out for the track team – if you did not sign up at the January 27 meeting, you must do so by this Friday, February 5th. The sign-up sheets are in the following locations.

6th grade – Mr. Volkmar's room

7th grade – Mrs. Yarber's room

8th grade – Mrs. Kowalski's room

Attention all Caudill readers: The deadline to turn in your completed reading logs to Mrs. Kelley is Tuesday, February 16th. That is the day I will be determining Battle of the Books teams and putting together the list of prizes! Don't stop reading yet! You've got a few more days to finish up what you started!

Good luck to the boys' volleyball team as they play tonight at home against Central Jr. High. The match starts at 5:00. The team needs to be here by 4:30.

Science Club rocket builders will meet after school today. This meeting is for rocket builders only. A list is posted outside of Mrs. O's door. Please bring a pencil to the meeting!

The Scholar Bowl team lost a hard fought match last night to Central Junior High. At the end of regulation questions the score was tied. Ms. Brombolich had to ask 5 tiebreaker questions before Central finally broke the tie. Final score was Belle Valley 115 and Central 125. The team deserves a pat on the back for the tremendous battle.

Keep collecting your donations for Hoops for Heart. Money is due February 12th. Remember, all students who collect will be honored at an upcoming girls' basketball game. Please see Mr. Musso or Mrs. Evans if you need a new collection form.

FEBRUARY 5, 2010

Homeroom doors will be judged on Wednesday morning. Looking for a creative Valentine look. Prizes awarded.

Attention all students who are interested in going out for the track team – if you did not sign up at the January 27 meeting, you must do so by this Friday, February 5th. The sign-up sheets are in the following locations.

6th grade – Mr. Volkmar's room

7th grade – Mrs. Yarber's room

8th grade – Mrs. Kowalski's room

Attention all Caudill readers: The deadline to turn in your completed reading logs to Mrs. Kelley is Tuesday, February 16th. That is the day I will be determining Battle of the Books teams and putting together the list of prizes! Don't stop reading yet! You've got a few more days to finish up what you started!

Our 7th grade girls' basketball team lost to Central Jr. High last night by the score of 27-21. Chasity R. had 3 rebounds and 9 points. Brittney B. scored 8 points. Macee J. had 2 points and 9 rebounds. Everyone played hard. Practice tonight 2:30-4:30.

Our 8th grade girls' basketball team lost to Central Jr. High last night. Alexis A. had 8 points and 6 rebounds. Jantoya W. had 2 points and 5 rebounds. Practice after school until 4:30.

Reminder to all musical cast members: There is NO musical rehearsal tonight!

The boys' volleyball team played their best match of the year so far, but lost to Central Jr. High in three close games. Alex S. led the team in serving with 22 good serves, with 8 aces. Khalil F. added 6 aces. Coty B. and Chris W. each had 3 aces. Daniel B. was our best passer with 10 good passes, and Khalil F. had the most - good spikes with 10. Coty B. had two excellent blocks. Practice today after school in the cafeteria.

Solo and Ensemble Members in Chorus: Remember to stay after school if you are signed up to rehearse your song.