

OCTOBER 19, 2009

Turn in your responsibility essays by October 28th. You can get a copy of the instructions from the office. Remember the word of the month is Responsibility.

Student Council meeting Wednesday at 7:20.

Student Council is sponsoring a sale of 4 items to show school spirit. They are a hooded sweatshirt, sweatpants, long sleeve tee and a short sleeve tee. The sale ends October 23. By that date have your order form and money to Mrs. Hoercher. A sample hoodie will be hanging in the office. Get your BV item now for the sports season.

Student Council will be sponsoring several special days related to Red Ribbon Week and staying drug free. These are fun days but the message is to not let drugs be a part of your life and make that decision now while you are young.

Tuesday will be Turn Your Back on Drugs Day – wear clothes backwards.

Student Council is sponsoring a poster contest for Red Ribbon Week. The slogan is – I Have Better Things to Do Than Drugs. You must illustrate the poster to go along with the slogan and must be colored. All posters are due to Mrs. Hoercher by October 28. Prizes will be awarded. Get a poster paper from your homeroom teacher or from Mrs. Hoercher. You may enter the contest one time.

Teachers: Please excuse the volleyball team at 1:40 for the pep assembly. Volleyball players go directly to the locker room to get changed into your uniforms.

OCTOBER 20, 2009

Turn in your responsibility essays by October 28th. You can get a copy of the instructions from the office. Remember the word of the month is Responsibility.

Student Council meeting Wednesday at 7:20.

Student Council is sponsoring a poster contest for Red Ribbon Week. The slogan is – I Have Better Things to Do Than Drugs. You must illustrate the poster to go along with the slogan and must be colored. All posters are due to Mrs. Hoercher by October 28. Prizes will be awarded. Get a poster paper from your homeroom teacher or from Mrs. Hoercher. You may enter the contest one time.

Take a look at the hooded sweatshirt sample in the office. Four different items are on sale now. All orders and money are due to Mrs. Hoercher by October 23.

Wednesday will be “Stay in the Game Play Drug Free” – wear items about your favorite sport.

Attention 7th grade boys’ basketball players: Practice tonight till 4:30. Practice on Wednesday from 1:45 to 3:30.

Pages Club Members: There is a meeting this Thursday during lunch.

Our 8th grade boys’ basketball team will play tonight at Belleville West. Game time is 4:30. We will meet in Mr. Brueggeman’s room after school. The bus leaves at 3:15.

OCTOBER 21, 2009

Turn in your responsibility essays by October 28th. You can get a copy of the instructions from the office. Remember the word of the month is Responsibility.

Student Council is sponsoring a poster contest for Red Ribbon Week. The slogan is – I Have Better Things to Do Than Drugs. You must illustrate the poster to go along with the slogan and must be colored. All posters are due to Mrs. Hoercher by October 28. Prizes will be awarded. Get a poster paper from your homeroom teacher or from Mrs. Hoercher. You may enter the contest one time.

Time is running out on ordering a shirt or sweatpants for the season. All orders and money are due Friday to Mrs. Hoercher. This is the time to get your BV item.

Thursday will be "It's Hip to be Drug Free" – dress like the style in the 60's and 70's.

7th grade boys' basketball practice tonight from 1:45 – 3:30.

Pages Club Members: There is a meeting this Thursday during lunch.

Our 8th grade boys' basketball team defeated West Jr. High last night 49-42. Markee T. had 13 points and 8 rebounds. Trayvon H. had 9 points and 4 steals. Jamauari G. and Chris W. each had 8 points. Coty B. added 6 points and Khalil F. had 5 points and 12 rebounds. It was a great effort by all players. We play tonight at Belleville West at 8:15. Players should arrive at 7:30.

OCTOBER 22, 2009

Turn in your responsibility essays by October 28th. You can get a copy of the instructions from the office. Remember the word of the month is Responsibility.

Student Council is sponsoring a poster contest for Red Ribbon Week. The slogan is – I Have Better Things to Do Than Drugs. You must illustrate the poster to go along with the slogan and must be colored. All posters are due to Mrs. Hoercher by October 28. Prizes will be awarded. Get a poster paper from your homeroom teacher or from Mrs. Hoercher. You may enter the contest one time.

Tomorrow is the day that all orders and money will be due to Mrs. Hoercher for the BV items. Look sharp in the new BV items this season.

Friday will be "Friends Help Friends Be Drug Free" – dress just like a friend.

Pages Club Members: There is a meeting today during lunch.

Come watch the 5th and 6th grade girls' volleyball home opener against High Mount. 5th grade is at 6:00 and 6th grade is at 7:00.

Our 8th grade boys' basketball team lost to Central Jr. High last night. Trayvon H. and Khalil Fowler both had 7 points. Jamauri G. pulled down a team high 8 rebounds. We play tonight at Central Jr. High. Game time is 7:00. We are wearing RED uniforms. Players should arrive at 6:15.

OCTOBER 23, 2009

Turn in your responsibility essays by October 28th. You can get a copy of the instructions from the office. Remember the word of the month is Responsibility.

Student Council is sponsoring a poster contest for Red Ribbon Week. The slogan is – I Have Better Things to Do Than Drugs. You must illustrate the poster to go along with the slogan and must be colored. All posters are due to Mrs. Hoercher by October 28. Prizes will be awarded. Get a poster paper from your homeroom teacher or from Mrs. Hoercher. You may enter the contest one time.

This is it - all shirt orders are due to Mrs. Hoercher today. Make sure she gets your order and money today.

Our 7th grade boys will play at Wolf Branch tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 10. We will then play another game at Wolf Branch at 12:30. Players must bring both red and white uniforms. Wear white for the 10 o'clock game.

The 5th and 6th grade volleyball teams were victorious last night against High Mount.

For the 5th graders: Brianna N. and Brittany P. served respectfully 15 & 14 points. The team had several wonderful plays at the net by: Claire R., Alexis D., Rachel C., Kamryn P., and Jhanira W. The team won in 3 games: 25-22, 25-23, 25-4.

The 6th graders won in two games: 25-16, 25-23. Serving well and under some pressure were: Makaila B., Kentavia T., & Makayla E. Working at the net brilliantly were: Faith C., Kendreala C., and Cyanne L.

The entire team contributed to these wins. Next game is home against Signal Hill on Tuesday.

The 8th grade boys' basketball team took 3rd place last night at the Milton Wiley Tournament. We defeated Wolf Branch 36-27. Jamauri G. had 10 points, and Markee T. had 9 points and 9 rebounds. It was a great team effort.