

SEPTEMBER 28, 2009

Did you know that Roald Dahl, the author of “Charlie and the Chocolate Factory,” “Matilda,” and many other books, was born on September 13th? To celebrate his 93rd birthday, everyone who checks out a book from the library by Dahl this month will receive a bookmark. Stop by the library today!

Student Council meeting Wednesday at 7:20 in Mrs. Hoercher’s room.

Attention girls trying out for volleyball – 7th and 8th grade volleyball tryouts start today. Please see the list outside the office to see if you have all your paperwork in. IF YOUR NAME IS NOT ON THE LIST, YOU CANNOT TRYOUT.

Students: Make sure you use your time wisely during breakfast and lunch. Some of you are doing more talking than eating and are late for class.

To celebrate Responsibility, the word of the month, you can write an essay about the relationship between your age and level of responsibility. How do responsibilities differ for people your age and for older adults? How has your sense of responsibility changed as you have gotten older? At what age should we become totally responsible and accountable for our actions? This essay must be at least one and a half pages, and in essay form, including an introduction, body, and conclusion paragraphs. The essay is due October 28th to Ms. Dancy. You will receive $300.00 in character cash and you can choose for some of your essay to be read during the morning announcements.
